

Kris Unger is the Primary Conservator of the Friends of Accotink Creek, a founding board member of the Fairfax County Restoration Project, Chair of the Sierra Club's DC Inner City Outings program. He does tech and media for Verdant Power, an alternative energy company, and works with Lands and Waters on school-based environmental education and restoration projects. He is dedicated to building community awareness of, and engagement in, local environmental issues and nature-based solutions. He is particularly fascinated with vernal pool ecosystems.